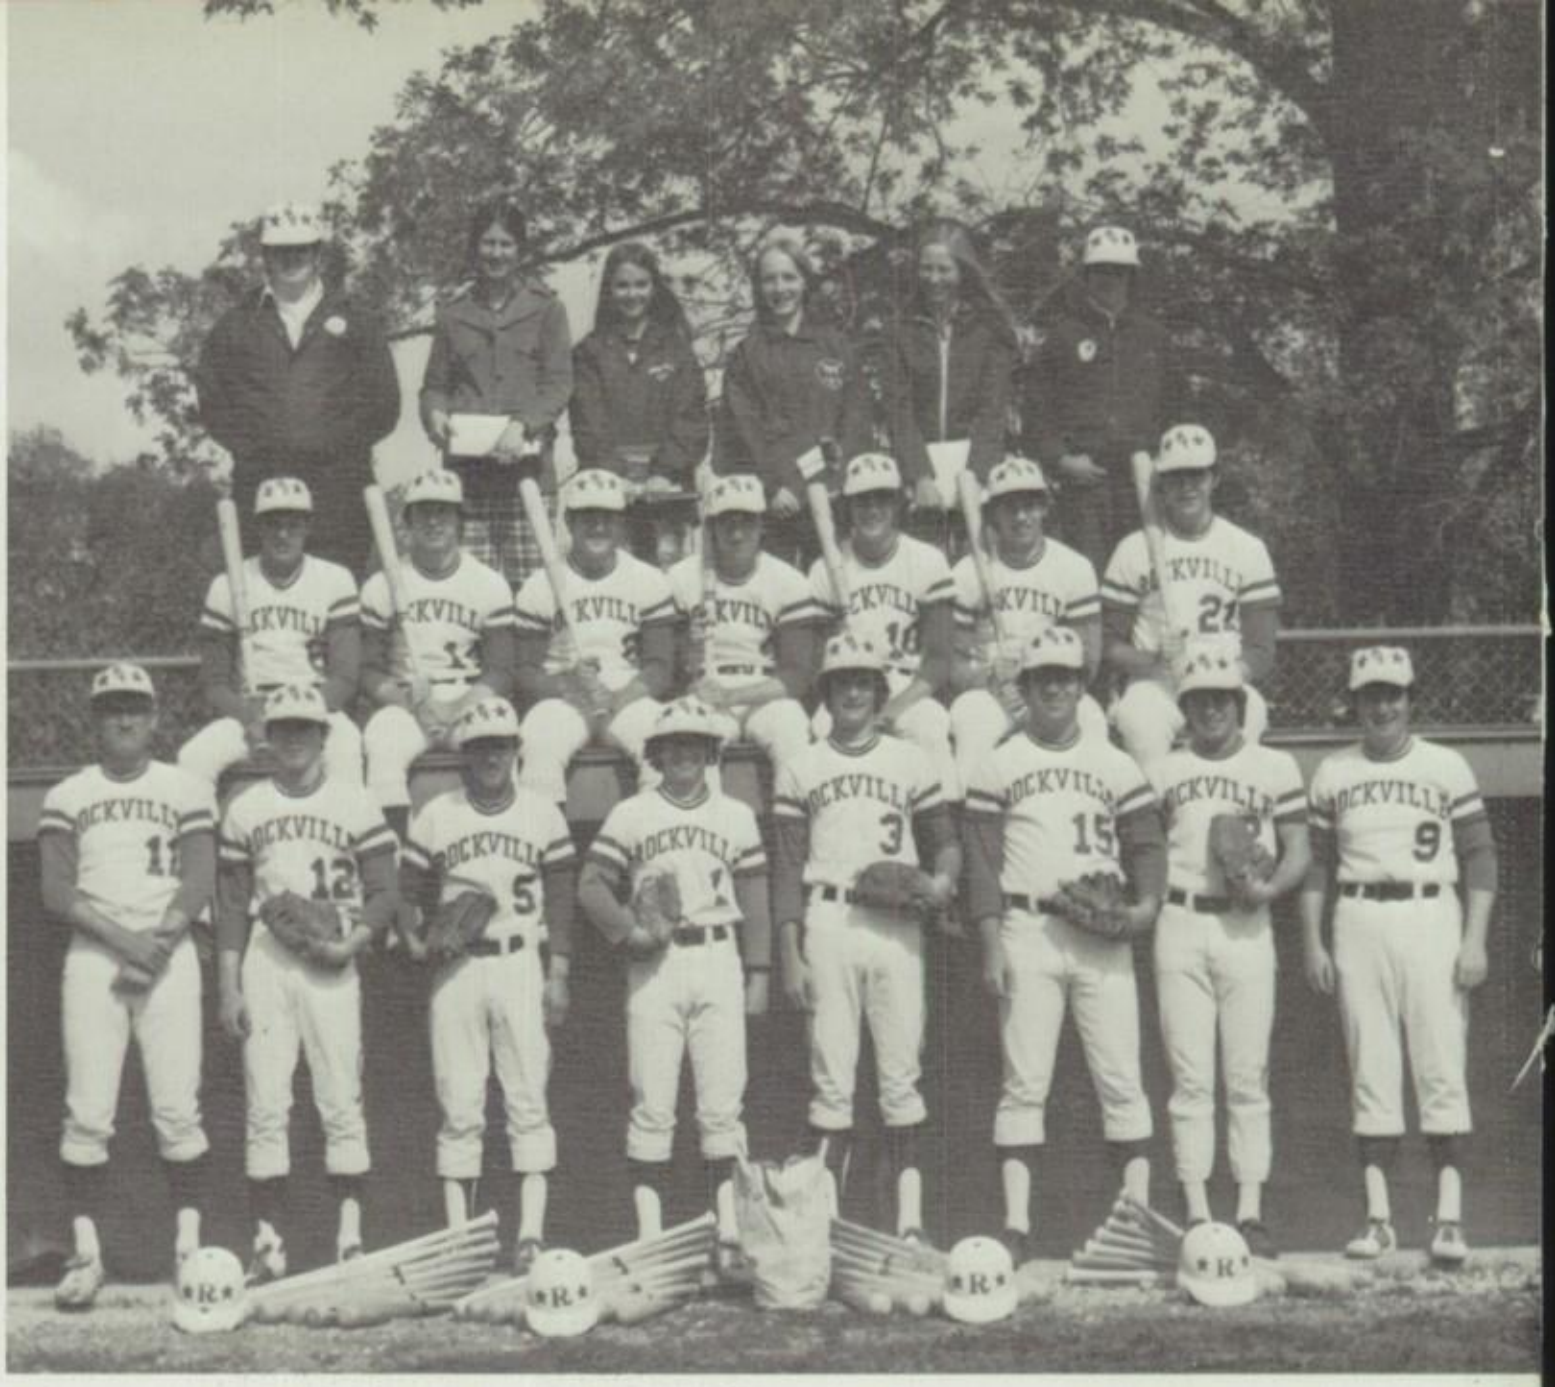
The 1973 Edition of the Rockville Rox Baseball Team again enjoyed a very successful season. The Rox finished the season with seven consecutive victories only to lose to Clinton in the Championship game of the sectional tournament. The Rox season record was 11 wins and 6 losses with a 4-4 Wabash River Conference record. The Rox have now gone seven consecutive seasons without having a losing conference record and, including ties have finished 4th or better in the W.R.C. standings in each of those seven years. Opposing coaches voted 3 Rox starters to All Conference Teams. Named were John Nelson and Ed Crowder to the 1st team. Ron Teague was named to the 2nd team. Nelson's selection marked the 4th consecutive year to an All-Conference Baseball team putting him in a very select group of past Athletes in the W.R.C. The Rox have now had 16 players named to the All-W.R.C. First Team the past 8 years. Overall, 33 players have received various conference honors for the Rox.



FRONT ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT: Coach Fulk, John Rivers, Steve Lear, Roger Rowe, Ross Davies, Todd Rowe, John Nelson and Coach Gambaiani. MIDDLE ROW: Bill Sears, Ron Teague, Gerald Kinion, Ed Crowder, Mark McGranahan, Mike Rutherford and Joe Newton BACK ROW: Bob Taylor, Nancy McFaddin, Cheri Huddleson, Lynn McMullen, Mary Ruth Welch and Scott Taylor.

Recipients of the "Big Stick" Award for 1973 were Ron Teague, Roger Rowe, and Ed Crowder. Roger Rowe captured the "Fireman" Award and John Nelson was voted the coveted "Most Valuable Player" Award by his team mates and coaching staff. New inductees to the Rox Baseball Hall of Fame included Ron Teague who tied for most career home runs, Roger Rowe for most wins in a season, and John Nelson for most runs in a season and career hits.

LAST SUMMER . . .

MARY COLLINGS, scholarship winner, attended an ART WORKSHOP at BALL STATE UNIVERSITY.

THE PROM

Entering by drawbridge, prom attendants were greeted by a panorama of medieval pageantry . . . castle walls with shields of royal coats of arms. With the playing of the theme song "Knights in White Satin" by the Peppercorn Band, the court ascended the scarlet carpeted steps to the throne . . . Trumpets announced King DAVID SMITH and Queen ALISA RATCLIFF. The crowning ceremony was performed by JON BONOMO class president.

The 1973 PROM COURT also included attendants MICHAELA SMITH and KAREN FLOCK with pages Mike Clodfelter and Bobby Steinberg. Serving at the refreshment table were: Susie Rahn, Chris Bonomo, Kim Warren, Sharon Waltz, Jenny Hill, and Susie Wimmer.
